

SOCCKER SATURDAY

DRINKING GAME

THE RULES

Drink if...

A goal is scored – One finger of beer.

The team you support/pick concede

- You must turn your shirt/T-shirt back to front.

Someone somewhere gets a red card

– Jaegerbomb for everyone.

Someone gets a yellow card

– Everyone takes a shot of tequila.

Someone scores an own goal

– One shot of the spirit of your choice.

Anytime you hear a football cliché

– Call it out and everyone else has to drink.

Someone gets a player's name wrong (including mispronunciation) – Last person to shout:

“Stelios Giannakopoulos!” must take a shot.

Absolutely no drinking during half-time

– Anyone caught drinking must go outside and jog around the block before being let back in.

Ref falls over – See off your beers.

A pundit makes a really bad joke or pun

– One finger of beer.

Anytime a pundit says: “Goal of the season”

– Shots all round.

Any pundit says: “Unbelievable” – Shots all round.

A pundit says: “Relegation battle” – Last two players to put their arm in the air must arm wrestle.

A pundit makes a Fergie reference in comparison to the current United team/manager

– One finger of beer.

A pundit screams/makes a funny noise

– One finger of beer.

A team scores after 90 minutes

– Everyone must down their drink.

The game ends – Everyone must shake hands and swap shirts with another drinker.